

Green Energy Intern - Policy, Research and Events for Summer 2023

Green Energy Consumers Alliance is a non-profit organization with a mission to speed the transition to clean energy. We advocate for energy policies in Massachusetts and Rhode Island to directly address the climate crisis. Our energy programs offer New Englanders: information and resources on electric vehicles; green electricity for homes, offices, and whole communities; rooftop solar; energy efficiency and heat pumps. We advocate for state level policy to reduce emissions across the sectors of transportation, buildings, and electricity.

Internship responsibilities include: Research, as needed, into policies and programs around building decarbonization (including heat pumps), transportation (including electric vehicles), grid modernization, and renewables. Assist with webinars, events, and consumer outreach. Other duties as assigned.

Required Qualifications: Strong research skills. Good written & verbal communication skills. Good organizational skills, attention to detail, and ability to closely follow procedures. Permanent residency in Rhode Island OR attending a Rhode Island college or university. Your graduation year must be 2023, 2024, or 2025. Eligibility for a Rhode Island Clean Energy summer internship program. https://refinternships.commerceri.com/employer/..

Desired Qualifications: Familiarity with electric vehicles, renewable energy, and energy policy with a desire to learn more. Driver's license. A second language.

Other details: Number of hours per week and number of weeks is negotiable for this summer internship. It will be conducted in hybrid fashion, both remotely and from Providence office, 188 Valley Street. The internship is contingent upon funding from Rhode Island Clean Energy program. Wage = $20/hour.

Apply to This Internship: Applicants must include cover letter, resume, writing sample, & unofficial or official transcript. To inquire or to send your application materials directly to the organization, email jobs@greenenergyconsumers.org.