

Solar Design Engineer Intern

Qualifications- 3rd year college engineering student- Ability to use CAD type design programs for solar layout designs.

- Must be organized and able to complete tasks

Job Description:

Responsibilities – Engineering support and solar array designs- working knowledge of Excel, Word and MS Office is required.

- Researching electronic communication systems

- Develop rooftop solar designs and Utility required site plans- ability to read electrical schematics

- Keep track of solar monitoring sites and reporting job parameters